

“Under The Same Sun is passionately committed to ending the deadly discrimination against people with the genetic condition of albinism. Through education and advocacy we envision a day when people with albinism will be understood and take their rightful place in all aspects of society, EVERYWHERE.”